Church History

Our church was the location for a 'splendid lecture' by Rev. LaFayette Colborn. He'd been ordained from our church in 1872 and was serving in Richwood, OH. According to the newspaper, 'Mill Run Advance', he returned to his hometown in 1910 to speak to a large audience about the evils of the saloon. One of the many quotes: "Whiskey and beer have never filled men's minds and hearts with intelligent ideas and noble purposes." He was the great great uncle of present I.C.B.C. members Donna Crider and Patty Dull.
