Church History

Meriel Bigam Hensel Bowser was the church clerk of ICBC for 36 years until her untimely death in 2001. Meriel sang in the Women's Trio with Patty Broadwater and Dorothy Dull and the Senior Choir. Meriel's faith carried her through tragedy, accident and life. She was a fifty-year member of Mill Run Grange. She helped with VBS, was an assistant SS teacher, served as Clerk of Monongahela Bapt Assoc, President of Monongahela ABWM, and held various offices in the local ABWM. Meriel helped her husband Don, as a minister's wife. She played the piano at Star Junction Baptist Church. Meriel and Don have three daughters and 6 grandchildren that she helped care for. Meriel's life was cut short by a stray hunter's bullet coming through the house in 2001.
