Church History

Does anyone recall a past April 1st Sunday when we were the victims of a prank? It seems some ICBC ushers were in a playful mood after collecting the offering. The ornery boys, who shall remain nameless, were to record the attendance while in the vestibule, but also decided to switch coats from one side to the other. They had a pretty good time after the service watching confused folks look for their outerwear, some claiming out loud 'I know I put my coat here, I always hang it in the same spot'. A few innocent husbands were handed blame that day, but most were sharing the laugh with the good nature fun intended.
