Operation Christmas Child: This year, we are going to be making a few changes to our Operation Christmas Child shoebox drive. We would love for you to know what to expect in the year ahead and to learn more about what Operation Christmas Child is all about. For this reason, we will have a soup and salad lunch (free for all who attend) to discuss these matters with you on Sunday, February 4th following the morning worship service

Home Group is Back! Monday, Feb 5 at 7:00 p.m. at the Dull residence. The 1st and 3rd Mondays through April 16

Do you have pictures of your church family or of the church buildings through the years? The 175th Anniversary Planning Committee is looking for pictures to scan and place within a slideshow presentation during our anniversary service on June 24, 2018. Please give pictures in an envelope to either Pam Hughes or Pastor Chris. We will scan your images and give them back to you.

Do you have a story to tell? In the weeks leading up to the 175th celebration, we will be sharing brief reflections inside of the bulletin that reflect the Lord's work through ICBC. We are looking for stories such as: conversion stories, character sketches of previous members, write-ups about mission trips or other works of service (local, national, or international), humorous memories, unique facts about the church, etc. Please submit these stories to Amy McLaughlin.
