Announcements

Background Clearances: If your clearances have expired please renew them and provide copies to Pastor Chris for our files. If you are not sure check with Pastor Chris. These are required to actively participate in our Children and Youth programs.

Christmas Eve service is scheduled for 7 p.m. The offering taken will be divided between Retired Ministers & Missionaries and our College students. You can send your offering to Kerwin Miner designated for this offering or send to church address, if you are unable to attend.

Annual Meeting will be held January 13th. Our meeting will be available over Zoom (a link will be provided prior to the meeting). If you are a committee or board chairperson please submit your reports to Pam Hughes by Sunday Jan 3rd.

January 9th – The Board of Directors will be demolishing two walls in the basement. If you have items in these rooms please remove them. There is room in the open area of the basement to neatly stack them. This would be a good time to organize and sort out items.

January 3, 2021 will be College Student Sunday. We will have video presentations from our students. There will be an offering plate in the rear of the sanctuary to place your gift. If you will not be able to attend you can send your offering to Kerwin Miner.
