We will have a business meeting after church today to vote on a proposed amendment. Here is the proposed amendment:

In the event of a vacancy in the associate pastorate, a search committee shall be formed. The committee shall consist of seven members. It shall be the duty of this committee to investigate candidates for the vacant position. The manner of making investigation shall be the decision of the committee. It shall be the duty of this committee to recommend one candidate at a time. Once a candidate is decided upon, the committee shall give the congregation the candidate's resume, statement of faith, personal doctrine, and other pertinent information. Each candidate considered may be called to a question-and-answer session before the congregation and shall be voted on before a second candidate is presented. The vote shall take place immediately after the candidate's question-and-answer session. The committee may recommend to the congregation the salary of the candidate, but the final decision/agreement shall be determined by the Finance Committee.
